

May 2013

South Australian Museum, North Terrace, Adelaide South Australia 5000
Free Entry | Open Daily 10am to 5pm | except Good Friday & Christmas Day

School Holiday Program - Sea to Shore: A Prehistoric Encounter

Get your tickets now for this uniquely South Australian theatrical puppet show (http://www.samuseum.sa.gov.au/index.php?option=com_content&Itemid=21&catid=22&id=380&view=article)! With life-sized dinosaurs and creatures based on the South Australian Museum's own collections, this performance will enthral and excite visitors of all ages.

Call for Entries - Waterhouse Natural History Art Prize™

Enter your natural history artworks into the Waterhouse Art Prize™ (<http://www.samuseum.sa.gov.au/whatson/whattosee/special/waterhouse/waterhouse-natural-history-art-prize-2011>). Be part of this momentous occasion, as the prize celebrates 10 years in 2012. Entry categories include Paintings, Works on Paper, Sculpture & Objects, and the Waterhouse Youth Art Prize.

Tell Me a Story

Enjoy storytelling museum-style (http://www.samuseum.sa.gov.au/index.php?option=com_content&view=article&id=36&Itemid=99), designed especially for children 3-5 years old. Every Friday, sing and dance your way into the world of natural history. Bookings essential on 08 8207 7090.

Northern Impressions: A Celebration of Contemporary Printmaking

Come on a rich, visual journey (http://www.samuseum.sa.gov.au/index.php?option=com_content&Itemid=21&catid=22&id=388&view=article) through the Australian landscape into Aboriginal 'country' through the medium of printmaking. The limited edition prints by some of Australia's most talented artists and professional printmakers makes this exhibition one not to be missed.

Spotlight Series - Badcoe Medals: The Galloping Major

A special spotlight will be shining in April to celebrate ANZAC Day. Major Badcoe's medals (http://www.samuseum.sa.gov.au/index.php?option=com_content&Itemid=21&catid=22&id=392&view=article), including his Victoria Cross, will be on display with personal letters, photos and other items to pay tribute to this most remarkable man, and in honour of other veterans.

Good Friday and ANZAC Day

Please note the museum will be closed on Good Friday (6 April). On ANZAC Day (25 April), the museum and Balaena Cafe will open at 12noon as a mark of respect.

The South Australian Museum is supported by:

Not interested any more?